

SET 31

(AWT and Swings)

1. Design a standalone application to take Array size and keep showing the array in a text area on taking Array elements through a text field
2. Design a standalone application to take array size and elements from text field and also insert an extra element into the array on said position. Design application with all relevant fields.
3. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to delete an element from an array
4. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to merge two array one after another
5. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to merge two array Consecutively
6. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to rotate the array in said directions with one character at a time
7. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to sort the array of string in ascending order
8. Design a standalone application with all relevant fields to sort the array of string in Descending order.
