SET 38

(Database)

1. Design an application to insert the data into a database table through an interactive GUI using attributes like Roll no, Name and Percentage.
2. Design an application to delete a data based on the roll number from a database table.
3. Design an application to update a data of a school database based on the roll number from a database table.
4. Design an application to show a database table content in frame using Jtable .
5. Design an integrated application for school Database system with all operations like Insert,update,delete and view.

****